

Delaware G.A.B

Geographic Alliance Bulletin

2015 National Conference on GEOGRAPHY EDUCATION

Celebrating 100 Years of the National Council for Geographic Education - August 6-9, 2015 - Washington DC - www.ncge.org

Join us in Washington DC in August for the 100 year celebration! Attend informative sessions presented by teachers from all over the country. Enjoy the festivities. Four Delaware teachers have been nominated for the K-12 Distinguished Teaching Award! Delaware teachers get a special, very reduced rate on the conference fee. Click here for more information.

The Delaware website, with information for participants and others, is now ready for use. Go HERE to access it.

Summer Institute: Quebec Dimensions

Begin and end in Montreal with travel to Quebec City.

JUNE 28 to JULY 3, 2015

Invitation to all teachers, curriculum

Spring Workshop: GIS and City Planning

Mark Nowak, GIS Manager for the City of Dover, will present a workshop on April 16, 2015, at Roma Italian Restaurant in Dover. Come and see practical applications for GIS and the connection to the Geography DRC Units. More info.

Like US!

Website

coordinators, and administrators of social studies, geography, history and French to experience Canada's largest province and gain preparation for teaching about Canada in your state's curriculum. Apply by April 15. More Info

How is geography happening at your school? Let us feature your activities in our newsletter.

Contact us at:

DelawareGeoAlliance@gmail.com

Forward to a Friend!

Did you enjoy one of our workshops? Did you find out how much we have to offer? Maybe you just joined us and you received our new member packet. Tell your colleagues! Show them how easy it is to join us at www.degeoq.org.

Copyright @2015 Delaware Geographic Alliance. All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:

Delaware Geographic Alliance
216 Pearson Hall
Department of Geography
Newark DE 19716-2541